PREFACE

THIS list, for the most part, relates to books which were printed before 1521, but includes three of later date from the presses of Pynson and Wynkyn de Worde. In respect to the grouping and order of the presses, Proctor's lists have, generally, been followed, presses not in his lists being entered under their respective localities after the others; but, on the other hand, no distinction has been made between London and Westminster, Nos. 46, 47, 48 have been entered under Kerver and not under Georg Wolf, and No. 63 should perhaps have been entered later, as this book appears to have been printed by Nic. de Benedictis alone. (See Proctor: Lyon—press XXIX.)

Descriptions of some of the older bindings have been given, together with plates representing the binding of No. 4—Koberger's Bible—and also some of the stamps on Nos. 3, 14, 16, 63.

An attempt has been made to throw light on the history of individual books, and at the end of the Catalogue is an Index of inscribed names and donors, followed by short notes on some of the persons named. As bearing on this matter, it may be well to state that among the College records are several old catalogues of different dates relating to the books in the Library. The earliest of these, a list of the MSS. presented to the College by its founder, formed the subject of the first paper ever published by the Cambridge Antiquarian Society (1840). There are catalogues of 1633 and 1698 and, subsequent to these, a much more extensive catalogue which was written out probably about 1715 during the Mastership of Thos. Sherlock. In the book containing the latter have also been entered (i) a list of the books given to the Library in 1718 by John Addenbrooke, Fellow of the College and Founder of the Hospital in Cambridge, and (ii) a list of the books presented in 1728 by Thos. Crosse, who was Master from 1719 to 1736. The 1715 catalogue apparently continued in use till superseded by the printed catalogue of 1771—which, perhaps, may claim the distinction of being the earliest printed general catalogue of a library in the University of Cambridge. This printed catalogue includes the books that had come to the College in 1761 by the bequest of Thos. Sherlock, Bishop of London, a separate list of which is also among the records.

I acknowledge with gratitude my obligations to many for the assistance they have rendered me. In particular am I much indebted to Mr F. J. H. Jenkinson for his friendly guidance and readiness to help, to Mr C. E. Sayle for valuable advice and many acts of courtesy, and to Mr Alfred Rogers for his kindly assistance in the decipherment of some of the inscriptions. Mr A. W. Spratt and Mr W. H. S. Jones of S. Catharine's College have helped me in connexion with some of the Greek books, and I tender my thanks to them and also to the Provost of King's College, Dr W. W. Greg of Trinity College, Rev. G. A. S. Schneider of Gonville and Caius College and Mr S. Gaselee of Magdalene College for their courtesy in providing me with facilities for the examination of books in the libraries of their several colleges. In the biographical notes at the end of the Indexes I have embodied information courteously supplied, the source of which has in every case been indicated, but I must express my gratitude more particularly to Dr J. Venn, F.R.S., for his readiness to help and the opportunities he gave me of consulting him, to his son Mr J. A. Venn for kindly permitting me to make use of information contained in the University Matriculation lists for 1544-1658 which he has now in preparation, and to Rev. W. Greenwood for allowing me on different occasions to examine the early Registers of S. Benet's, Cambridge.

Enclosed panel filled with three parallel rolls of Gray's no. v., clumsily inserted. The combination of these rolls affords presumption that the doubtful roll no. v. is Spierinck's (see Gray: p. 52). Outside border, stamp no. v. of Gray: Plate XXVII. B. In this book and others with the roll stamp referred to, the pomegranate has been deliberately defaced wherever it occurs.

On recto of aa 1 "Thomas Cantuarien," and lower down "Lumley." On guard leaf is a pencil note of the late Henry Bradshaw: "Abp. Cranmer's own writing. Lord Lumley bought most of his books, and gave many of them to the University Library." On the other hand, the handwriting in question is supposed not to be Cranmer's autograph. (See E. Burbidge: Remains of the Library of Thomas Cranmer.) There are several MS. notes in the work some of which are in a hand which resembles Cranmer's. In 1633 Cat.

Panz. VII. 244, 65. Sayle 277.

[N.B. The titles of Henry's Assertio and Epistola ad Saxoniae duces are enclosed in woodcut borders, on one of the sides of which are the letters "H. H." There can be little doubt that these letters indicate that the woodcut was designed by the younger and more famous Hans Holbein. Pynson's border is obviously a copy—somewhat inferior in execution and differing in a few minor details—of the border, bearing these initials, which is employed by Froben in the edition of More's Utopia and Epigrammata, published in March 1518 (copy in the Grylls collection in Trin. Coll., Camb.). In that work there are three woodcut borders, which present features that bear a family likeness. The first of these, which like the "H. H." border deals with the story of the Tarquins, bears no distinctive artist's mark, but the second, of an architectural design, exhibits on the spandrels of an arch the legend "Hans Holb."

It is perhaps a matter of some importance to note that the same "H. H." border was again employed by Froben in 1519 for the title-page of a little treatise by Cuthbert Tunstall: In laudem matrimonii oratio (in connection with the betrothal of Mary, the daughter of Henry VIII., to the French king Francis) which had already been printed by Pynson himself in the previous year. The facts stated seem to bring Pynson and Froben into relation, and also afford a presumption that Holbein, who did not visit England till 1526-7, was favourably known to English Court circles several years previously.

It is curious that, though Froben employed the "H. H." border again for the title-page of an edition of More's Epigrammata which he issued in 1520, he had discarded it in the second issue of the Utopia and Epigrammata published together by him in November 1518. In its place, he employed a border which, in general character, appears to claim a different parentage and, as a matter of fact, bears upon it a monogram formed of the letters "V," "G" superimposed one upon the other. This is the cipher of Urs Graf, of which another example may be found in No. 43 of this catalogue. In the entry in the Brit. Mus. Catalogue relating to this edition (713 f. 1) is the note: "The title pages to the Utopia and the Epigrammata T. Mori are surrounded by borders from designs by Hans Holbein," but this statement appears to be in need of some modification in relation to the title-page to the Epigrammata.]

ATKYNSON, WILLIAM.

Became Vicar of Potton, Beds., in 1536 and vacated his living about 1539. The advowson of Potton was granted in 18 Rich. II. to the Abbess and Convent of Minoreesses without Aldgate, London, and presumably Atkynson was the last appointment under the Abbess. (Information kindly supplied by Rev. A. Long, now Vicar of Potton.)

BAINBRIG, REGINALD.

B.A. 1506; M.A. 1509; B.D. 1526; Proctor 1517; Fellow S. Cath. 1516; Master S. Cath. 1526(?)–1547. (Col. rec., D.N.B., Coop.)

BALTHASAR.

"Bibliopola Oxoniis." Possibly the "Balthasar Churchyard, Douchman" of F. Madan: The early Oxford Press, p. 273.

BENET, LEVINUS.

Son of Thomas Benet (created baronet 1660, died 1667), of Babraham, Cambs. Levinus Benet erected a remarkable monument in the Parish Church of Babraham to his father and his uncle, Richard Benet, which describes them as "two Brothers, and Both of them Baronetts: They lived together, and were brought up together, at schoole, at the University, and at Inns of Court. They married two Sisters, the daughters, and Heires, of Levinus Munkc Esq<sup>r</sup>." On a separate dedicatory marble, Levinus Benet describes himself as "utriusq; Hæres." (See also Burke, Extinct and Dormant Baronetcies, in which, however, there is no note of Richard Benet's baronetcy.)

Lev. Benet is possibly the "Mr Benet Junr." who was admitted to S. Cath. as a fellow-commoner in 1645 under Mr Lynford (see "Lynford" below) as tutor. (Coll. rec.) Nos. 43, 65, presented by Benet, once belonged to Lynford. Sir Levinus Benet, Bt, died 5 Dec. 1693.

BRUG (BRUN?), ROLANDUS.

The only "Roland" among the Priors of Wenlock in the list given in Dugdale is Roland Gosenall, who was Prior in 1522. A "William Brugge" was Prior about 1434–7, and "Brug" or "de Brug" are names which occur in early deeds. (Monast. Anglic. v. pp. 73–.)

CANSFIELD, ROBERT.

B.A. 1570–1 Trin., M.A. 1574 S. Cath. (Venn); Proctor 1588–9 (Neale). "Lancastriensis"; Fellow of S. Cath. in 1588 (Coll. rec.), and the inscriptions in Nos. 7, 14, 38, 63 show he was a Fellow in 1596.

CLAVER, ARTHUR, AND MARMADUKE.

See these names in Alumn. Oxon.

CROSSE, THOMAS.

Of Essex; admitted 1698–9; Fellow 25 March 1704; Master 1719–1736. B.A. 1702; M.A. 1706; S.T.P. Com. Reg. 1717. Proctor 1716; Vice-Chancellor Camb. Univ. 1720. Preb. of Norwich 1719–1736; Preb. of York 172 $\frac{3}{4}$ –1736; Rector of Ashby and Oby cum Thirn, Norfolk. Died 27 Aug. 1736. (Coll. rec., Grad. Cant., Le Neve.)

In 1728 Crosse presented about 200 works to the Library.

DEVY, THOMAS.

See Alumn. Oxon.

GLASCOCKE, WILL.

A Glascock of Cath. graduated 1574-5 (Neale), and the name appears in the Coll. register in 1630, 1632 (Wm Glascock of Essex), 1639, 1663, 1679.

HEIGHAM, CLEMENS (DE GIFFARDS).

The Heighams at one time held the manor of Barrow in Suffolk, which formerly belonged to the Giffards. This manor came into the possession of Sir Clement Heigham (d. 1570), chief Baron of the Exchequer and Speaker of the H. of Commons. His grandson—also Clement Heigham (suc. his father 1626; d. 1634)—must be the "Clemens Heigham de Giffards" of the inscription in No. 4. This Clement was succeeded by his grandson, also Clement Heigham (m. 1633, d. 1686). A son of the last, another Clement (d. 1714), was Rector of Barrow and was possibly the "Heigham" admitted to S. Cath. in 1658 and the "Clem. Heigham, Cath." who graduated A.B. in 1662. (Coll. rec., Grad. Cantab. Gage, History and Antiquities of Suffolk, 1838.)

In this connexion it may be of interest to note that the Bacons, also a Suffolk family and associated with the Heighams, were represented in the College. The records show admissions of (1) Nich. Bacon 1634, (2) Nath. Bacon 1661, (3) Ric. Bacon 1669, (4) — Bacon 1670, Nos. (2), (3), (4) being fellow-commoners. These Bacons were probably the descendants of Nich. Bacon, the eldest son of the Lord Keeper and the first person to receive the dignity of a baronet. (See Gage's Suffolk.)

LAYTON, RICH.

1500?-1544. Educated at Cambridge; Master in Chancery, Dean of York, chief agent in the suppression of the monasteries, a reformer of studies in the University of Oxford, appointed to assist in the trial of Anne Boleyn and to examine into the validity of the King's marriage with Anne of Cleves (D.N.B.). Foster includes Layton among his Alumni Oxonienses.

The identification of the former owner of Nos. 10-13, 15 with the subject of this note is confirmed by a comparison of the writing and signatures in these books and in autograph letters of Rich. Layton preserved in the Cotton MSS. Cleop. E. IV. in the British Museum.

LUMLEY.

John Lumley (1534-1609), Baron. Fellow-Commoner at Queens' Coll. Camb., matric. 1549. Antiquary and collector of books. Gave books to Camb. Univ. Lib. and also to Bodleian. (Coop., D.N.B.)

LYNFORD, SAM.

"Bedfordiensis." Fellow S. Cath. 30 Aug. 1634; one of the tutors in 1642-3 to 1646-7; ceased to be a fellow in 1648 (Coll. rec.); Proctor 1641 (Le Neve).

Lynford contributed congratulatory verses to (i) Ducis Eboracensis Fasciae: 1633; (ii) Carmen...ad cunas Principis Elizabethae: 1635; (iii) Συνοδια...ad regem Carolum de quinta sua sobole: 1637. In (i) he is described as "Coll. D. Joan. Art. Mag.;" in (ii) and (iii) as "Art. Mag. Aul. Cath. Socius."

The registers of St Benet's, Cambridge, show the following entries:

1650. "Thomas Linford the sonne of M<sup>r</sup> Linford sometime fellow Katherine Hall buried the 18th day of June."

MERES, ROBERT.

Matric. Sidney Coll. 1614; M.A. 1621; S.T.P. 1634; Fellow S. Cath. 1623. The inscription in No. 36 would imply that he had vacated his fellowship about 1634. (Coll. rec., Venn.)

MOONE, WILLIAM. Misnamed "Moor" in Neale.

"Leicestriensis"; Fellow S. Cath. 1597 (Coll. rec.); Proctor 1597 (Le Neve). Matric. Pembroke Coll. 1580; M.A. 1587 (Venn.)

PARKER, HENRY.

Of Gonville Hall. Succeeded to Barony of Morley in 1556. Died 1577. (See Coop. i. 378 and D.N.B.)

REDYNG, HENRICUS.

Described in inscription as monachus Tamensis. A house was founded at Tame or Thame in Oxfordshire in 1138 and furnished with Cistercian monks from Waverley; surrendered 31 Henry VIII. (Monast. Anglic. v. pp. 403- .)

SAVER, ROBERT.

Of Suffolk. Admitted sizar, Queens' Coll. Camb. 1652; elected fellow 23 Aug. 1660 and retained his fellowship to 1671, holding in succession various lectureships and readerships. (From information kindly supplied by the President of Queens' Coll. Camb.)

SHERLOCK, THOMAS.

1678-1761. Admitted S. Cath. 11 June 1693-4; Fellow S. Cath. 12 Aug. 1698; Master S. Cath. 1714 to 1719, when he resigned. Vice-Chancellor Camb. Univ. 1714. Bishop of Bangor 1727, of Salisbury 1734, of London 1748. (Coll. rec. and D.N.B.)

He was a liberal benefactor to his College. In 1758-9 the "iron palisades" on the front of the College were set up at his expense. In 1755-6 he gave the sum of £600 for the alteration and refitting of the College Library, subsequently paying a further sum to cover the full payment of the cost of the work. Moreover, by his will, dated 23 June 1758, he bequeathed to the College his library and also landed property to serve as an endowment for the payment of a stipend to a library-keeper and for the purchase of new books. Two codicils modified the provisions of the benefaction to the Library in respect to the methods of its administration, but did not touch its substance. His books were removed from Fulham Palace to the College in 1760-61 (Audit book).

In the article on Sherlock in the D.N.B. it is said that "he left...his library, with 7000*l.* for binding, to the University of Cambridge." Nothing appears to be known in the University Library of any benefaction from Bp Sherlock, and the facts above presented show that the account in the D.N.B. of Sherlock's testamentary dispositions is incorrect.

SMITH, HENRY.

Adm. scholar King's Coll. Camb. 24 Aug. 1570; Fellow 1573; M.D. 1590; ceased to be a fellow about Mich. 1592. (Information kindly supplied by Mr F. L. Clark, Bursar's Office, King's Coll.)

WAKEFELD, THOMAS.

First Regius Professor of Hebrew at Cambridge (1540); died 1575, and buried at Chesterton near Cambridge. (Coop. i. 337 and D.N.B.)

WIART, ROBERT.

Described as Crucifer and probably of the order of Cruciferi or Crucigeri, known in England as the "Crutched" or "Crossed Friars," whose first cloister in England was at Colchester. (Monast. Anglic. vi. pp. 1585-; also see L. Owen: The unmasking of...Monks, etc., 1628.)

WILBRAHAM, RIC.

No. 2 may have been presented by Mr Wilbraham, admitted fellow-commoner in 1679. Wilbrahams of Cheshire appear in the Register, two in 1639 and one in 1687.

WOODE, ROBERT.

Alderman in Norwich in 1577, and probably the same person as the knight and justice of the peace in 1580 who appears in the Records of the City of Norwich (W. Hudson and J. C. Tingey, vol. i. pp. 313, 318, 416). A Robert Woode was Mayor of Norwich in 1569 and 1578, and was knighted 22 Aug. 1578. (Blomefield's History of Norfolk; W. A. Shaw, The Knights of England, ii. 79.)

A Robert Wood, who was admitted at Queens' Coll. in 1620 (B.A. 1623-4), graduated M.A. from St Cath. in 1627 (Venn).
